What I meant; what actually happened

One useful part · usual communication or own paper is valid

What did I mean, if wanted?

I can leave this private.

Made, partly made, or planned?

What is here today?

Draw, describe, direct a willing helper or plan. Privacy, rest, help and pass stay available.

What I meant; what actually happened

Complete source · use one useful part in your usual communication

Use one question, make one wanted part, or leave it. Read aloud, point, sign, use AAC, mark or ask someone to scribe your own choice. Nothing needs writing/printing.

1. My intention, if I want to offer it: what is it?

_____

2. Actual work, unmade plan or partly made: which exists?

_____

3. Actual reply, NONE, private/planned, or explicitly invented model?

_____

4. Keep, change, try or leave: what do I choose?

Full literal blank alternative

Intention: blank. Available actual event/response or NONE: blank. My next choice: blank. No recipient words, emotion or effect are supplied.

An agreeing helper can follow your directions; their physical drawing/handling remains theirs. Adult-added ideas are named. An unmade plan stays a plan. Stop, rest, help, private keeping, a different job and pass are welcome. You do not have to explain a reason or share. Actual source/recipient/response is recorded only if it exists. No name or private details.
