One useful turn at home

Choose any tiny offer below. It has a ready source, a question and a simple next move. A broad mark, usual communication or directing a willing helper can be enough. No buying, printing or public sharing.

Keep the child’s idea separate from a supplied hint or device answer. Use the ordinary models if an actual question needs permission or a current source. Rest and a smaller first part are welcome. The teacher door has the full preparation and component criteria.
