E1 · Across the gap

E2 · Along the edge

E2 literal source: On a white background, two equal rounded square outlines stand far apart at the same height. A heavier angular line runs below them: first rightwards, then downwards, then rightwards again. It enters neither square. A small filled circle stands above the middle bend. The square interiors are white. No arrow or person appears.
